Understanding between parties:

By applying for credit facilities with Century, you agree to the following:

1. You will make payment of all invoices within the credit term granted to you in writing by Century;
2. In the event that the credit limit granted to you by Century has been exceeded and/or that your account balance is more than the given credit terms, you are required to make a payment to Century to reduce the outstanding balance before Century will accept and/or process your additional orders;
3. Century reserves the right at any time, to cancel or suspend any credit facility granted to you and Century will not be held liable for any loss/damage caused as a result of cancellation or suspension of credit facilities;
4. Century reserves the right to charge interest at the rate of 1.5% per month or such other rate as determined;
5. Century may from time to time notify you in writing of any overdue accounts and recover overdue amounts due to Century through legal or other processes and if done so, all costs incurred will be for your account;
6. Our standard terms and conditions apply, a copy of which is available on request.
